FARMERS' COLUMN

For food to be properly digested and well utilized, a good disposition, adequate diet, sunshine, and moderate exercise should be supplied, as well as a balanced diet, says Mary Carolyn Terrell, home economics student, in a speech on "Food Facts and Faddists" given over the university of Kentucky extension of WHAS.

Young housewives in initial buying should show regard for the size of the family income, its prospects of betterment, and the degree of permanency of such an income. Purchases should be carefully planned to be adequate, but as little in expense as the current income makes desirable.

In buying gingham and seersucker dress materials, be sure that it is marked "guaranteed fast color," there by assuring that it will retain its original color despite both sunlight and washing. If it is marked only "warranted fast color" it may lose its color in the sun.

When marketing for canned vegetables, look for the United States grade marked on the labels, worked out by the bureau of agricultural economics to enable consumers to know what they are buying. No canner is forced to use them, but some have adopted the practice.

Good gardeners know that it pays to thin vegetables to a distance where they can develop properly. Carrots should be an inch apart, parsnips 2 inches, satisfy and beets 1 1/2 inches.

There is still time to sow sudan grass, which makes summer pasture and fairly good hay if cut before blooming and properly cured. It should be drilled in a good seed bed at the rate of 20 pounds to the acre. If broadcast, 30 pounds should be sown and harrowed in.

About Milk Cows

Grow more hay and pasture, get rid of poor cows, raise only good heifers, and use more dairy products at home, is advice which the Kentucky college of agriculture offers to dairy farmers. Regardless of any government assistance, certain responsibilities rest with the dairy farmers themselves, says the college.

Good Pasture Pays.—Good pasture furnishes the cheapest feed. In Kentucky, feed produced by pasture costs only a fourth to a half as much as harvested crops produced on the same kind of land. There is still time to sow lespedeza. Plan permanent pastures.

Provide More Hay.—Legume hay is another source of cheap feed. Provide a ton and three fourths to two and one fourth tons of hay per cow. There is still time to sow soybeans, cowpeas, and sudan grass. Plan to grow more alfalfa and clovers.

Set Poor Cows.—Poor feeders, short time milkers, shy breeders, blood-test reactors, and cows subject to udder troubles are low producers. It is unwise to keep more cows than can be furnished hay and pasture from the farm, unless an exceptionally good market is available for milk.

Raise Only Good Heifers.—The average cost of raising a heifer to producing age is $40, at present feed prices. Of this amount, $32 goes for feed. It does not pay, therefore, to risk this high feed cost on calves that do not have breeding or other promise of good production.

Use More Dairy Products.—Each child should have a quart and each adult a pint of milk daily. A gallon of milk daily can be made into nearly 3 pounds of butter, 6 quarts of butter-milk, and 9 pounds of cottage cheese in a week.

Farm Credit Talks

A series of addresses about federal farm credit is announced for the college of agriculture programs from the university of Kentucky extension studios of WHAS.

Frank D. Rash, president of the federal land bank of Louisville, had for his subject May 18 "Finding the Funds to Finance Our Farms."

On June 13, Walter F. Gahn, president of the Production Credit corporation of Louisville, will speak on "That Money You Need for Current Farm Purposes."

John E. Brown, president of the Louisville Bank for Cooperatives, will have for his subject on June 20 "Co-operative Finance for Cooperatives."

On June 27, Ralph G. Sams, vice president and secretary of the federal intermediate credit bank of Louisville, will discuss "Where Farmers Have Equality with Industry."

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

Pauline Chapter no. 330, U. E. S., West Liberty, with Mrs. Stella Faudin, worthy matron, acted as hostess for the school of instruction for district no. 5 on Monday evening, May 21.

Worthy Grand Matron Minnie K. Rouse, of the Grand Chapter of Kentucky, and her husband, A. R. Rouse, of Erlanger, were present. The grand warder, Mrs. Hazel Bottoms, now at Jackson, but once a West Liberty girl, made her former home folks happy by her presence. A deputy grand matron, Mrs. Victoria M. Spradlin, was also present. Representatives attended from the chapters at Salyersville, Prestonsburg, Pikeville, Inez, Paducahville, and Elkhorn City, and there was a large attendance of the home chapter.

The hall was beautifully decorated in roses, peonies, and lilies. Electric fans made the oppressive heat bearable. As the work was put on in the afternoon by the hostess chapter, the worthy grand matron made the few corrections in such a gracious manner as to put everyone at ease. She offered helpful suggestions and complimented each officer for work well done, making the school one of pleasure as well as one of instruction.

At six o'clock over one hundred persons attended the banquet given in the basement of the M. E. church by the ladies of the Methodist and Christian churches. The color scheme was beautifully carried out with the yellow lilies, orange lilies, and white. Many were the compliments paid the ladies who never fail to serve attractively delicious food, and plenty of it to make a real banquet.

The short after-dinner program was enjoyed. Rouse brought acted as toastmaster. W. G. Hatfield gave the visitors a hearty welcome. Mrs. W. H. Sebastian presented a spray of lovely flowers to the worthy grand matron, with appropriate remarks on each side. The worthy grand matron then gave a short talk on the general principles of the order. Miss Anne Spaulding sang "Star of the East." Mrs. Mary Allen of Prestonsburg gave two short readings, and Miss Mary Galt gave a humorous reading entitled "Her Lost Husband."

At the night meeting, the worthy grand matron held the school of instruction. Part of the stations were filled with officers from visiting chapters. All worked together in perfect harmony and the worthy grand matron's remarks were words of commendation. Her address at the beginning and at the close helped those who seldom attend this school to more fully understand the great work the order of the Eastern Star strives to do, and her words of love and appreciation endeared her to the hearts of all. A number of gifts were presented to the grand officers and were received with gracious words of appreciation. The hostess chapter served angel food cake and ice cream at the close of the meeting.

Decoration Day Services

Decoration day services will be held at the Murphy cemetery near Mize at 10:30 a.m. and at Old Grass cemetery at 2 o'clock p.m. on Decoration day, with Rev. Harlan Murphy of West Liberty in charge.

A Drag On Prosperity

Pointing out that "obviously a sales tax bears much more heavily on wage-earners and small merchants, who spend most of their income on necessities, than on the wealthy, whose surplus goes to investments, personal or professional services," an editorial in The American City, a monthly journal devoted to municipal affairs, charges that "a sales tax is a serious drag on the revival of prosperity."

The magazine attacks the sales tax in a leading editorial quoting tax authorities of New York and New Jersey. It points to findings of a nation-wide investigation by the Rockefeller Foundation, directed by Robert Murray Hald, professor of political economy at Columbia university, and conducted by economists headed by Prof. Carl Shoup of the School of Business. The article quotes the findings of Professor Shoup in the following summary:

"In common with most professional students of taxation in this country, the writer has had an unfavorable opinion of the sales tax, although he has not believed it to be by any means unworkable or impracticable with respect to raising considerable amounts of revenue."

LADIES' AID MEETS

The Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Mattie Davis on Thursday, May 17. The president, Mrs. Lela Arnett, opened the meeting with scripture reading, followed by prayer by Rev. Harlan Murphy.

The afternoon was spent working on a quilt. Present were Mrs. H. D. Sparks, Mrs. Ada McKenzie, Mrs. Clara Meyer, Mrs. Floyd Arnett, Mrs. Nora Casky, Mrs. Charles Rouse, Mrs. Anna Stacy, Rev. and Mrs. Harlan Murphy, Misses Josephine McGuire and Edna McKenzie.

SALES TAX DEFEATED

The legislature's interim committee's sales tax measure was defeated in the house of representatives at Frankfort on Tuesday by the decisive vote of 32 to 65.

An administration called for public demonstration had been held on Monday, with the crowd addressed by Governor Ruby Laffoon. The governor asked for the passage of the bill before the "sun goes down." The bill, however, was not considered that day. C. U. May, representative from Morgan county, voted against the measure, as it was generally expected that it would.

Immediately after the defeat of the sales tax measure, Dr. J. B. Floyd of Madison county, an administration supporter, called a meeting of his fellow members to consider proper sources of revenue for the state's needs. At this meeting Dr. Floyd was elected chairman and Ralph Gilbert of Shelbyville was elected secretary. A canvass of the house membership is now being made to secure the view of the members on various revenue measures, with the expectation of formulating a program which will have the support necessary to enact it into law.

TEACHERS' REDUCED

Elizabethtown, Ky.—The following statement was issued here after a discussion of taxation matters by the business men:

"The business men of Elizabethtown have made an investigation and find that there is paid into the school fund of this city annually $28,400. Of this amount less than $5,000 is received from state funds and $23,500 is derived from local taxation. We feel that if we investigated this ratio of state funds to local funds would exist in most towns and cities throughout the state."

"In view of these facts and realizing that approximately 85 percent of our school fund comes from local taxation, it seems to us that the teachers and educators over the state should rightfully cooperate with the people who pay their money into the school fund and make it possible for the teachers to hold their jobs and receive their salaries instead of playing into the hands of the politicians at Frankfort, who are only trying to advance their own selfish interests."

BIRTHDAY DINNER

Union City, Ky.—Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Peyton entertained a number of their relatives and friends on Sunday, May 13, in honor of Mr. Peyton's forty-second birthday. They had prepared a bountiful dinner.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Stumper, Mrs. L. C. Peyton, Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Peyton and sons Anthony and Charles, Mrs. G. E. Nickell and daughter Maurine and sons Tommy and Edison, Mrs. Serena Wells, Ed Loemon, Mrs. Nan Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Corbett Peyton and sons James, Merle, and Lavin and daughters Anita and Wanda, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Peyton and sons Leonidas, Dorsey Jr., and Alex.

The day was enjoyed by all. The children played games in the afternoon, while the older ones enjoyed some wonderful Mother's day programs over the radio. We all hope Mr. Peyton will have many more happy birthdays.

SAYS HARRY SOMMERS

"If we are on the road to moral degeneracy, the path is being blazed by the women more than it is by the men. Man's standard for women has not been changed, but women have changed their own standard."

In these words the dean of Kentucky newspaper men, Harry Sommers of Elizabethtown, arraigns American womanhood. The particular foundation for Brother Sommers' remarks is the modern attitude of women toward intoxicating liquors. Women drinking intoxicating liquors in public places is degrading, second in degree only to the enslaved habit from which few of the habitual participants escape.

BUYS FORD AGENCY

Wm. Sewell of Lee City has purchased the Ford Motor company agency at this place from L. B. Reed, and has taken possession of the business.

Mr. Sewell is a first class mechanic himself, and with the well equipped shop is excellently prepared to take care of the vice trade which this shop has built up. Mr. Sewell has the exclusive selling agency for Ford cars and equipment for this territory, and will vigorously develop that part of his business.

SUMMERS

C. M. Summers of Lexington, Kentucky, died Friday, May 18, 1934, after an illness lasting nearly three years. Mr. Summers was pastor of the Christian church at West Liberty during 1904-1917, leaving in September, 1917, to join the V. M. C. A. forces for war work, and was stationed at Camp Zachary Taylor during the remainder of the war.

He was later district secretary for the V. M. C. A., stationed first at Jackson, then at Winchester, and later at Louisville from where he was transferred to Nashville, Tenn. Then he reentered the ministry, returning to Kentucky about four years ago.

Precious to the illness that forced him to give up his work, he was connected with the state board of missions of the Christian church in the capacity of secretary for rural work.

Mr. Summers is survived by his widow and his daughter Katherine, of Lexington, his father, known here as "Dad" Summers, of Winchester and a sister near Lebanon.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Woodland church with Dr. Roe of Nashville and Mrs. Fortune and Allen Wilson of Lexington officiating. Burial was in the Lexington cemetery.

ARE YOU A SAFE DRIVER?

Summers is here and the streets and highways of the nation will be crowded with traffic. Fine dry weather will bring out thousands of motorists, and roads will resound again to the roar of motors.

Now is the time to ask yourself if you are a safe driver—and don't answer too hurriedly. You can give yourself a little quiz that will help. Are you thoroughly conversant with the driving laws of your state? Do you adapt the speed at which you drive to local conditions—in other words, are you aware that 20 miles an hour is dangerously fast at times, and slow at others? Do you stick to your side of the road, and make certain that you can stop, under any circumstances, in the assured clear distance ahead? Are you careful not to pass on hills and curves?

Other questions of this kind will suggest themselves to you. But even if such a test, honestly answered, puts you in the safe driving status, you aren't thru. How about your car? When were the tires, the brakes, the steering, the lights, last inspected by a good mechanic? A substantial percentage of motorists cut off repairs till tomorrow—and sometimes that tomorrow never comes.

Last year was one of the worst in the history of the automobile so far as needless sacrifice of life and property was concerned. Every motorist should give himself a safe driving test now, and if he is uncertain as to how to do it, traffic departments and safety organizations exist to help him. Bring accidents down in 1934!

NEW TELEPHONE SERVICE

Effective May 23, citizens of West Liberty have at their command a world wide communication service at much lower rates than have heretofore been charged. This has been made possible thru a contract between the Postal Telegraph-Cable co. and the Kentucky State Telephone co., whereby the local telephone company will act as agents for the telegraph company, transmitting telegrams to all points in the United States and Canada, as well as cablegrams to foreign points and radiograms to ships at sea.

In addition to transmitting messages, the local telephone company will deliver all messages destined to West Liberty at any time during the hours of operation at the telephone exchange. Charges for this service will be billed on the monthly telephone bills just as long distance tolls are billed at the present time. Of major interest to residents of this community is the fact that the sender of a telegram now will be charged only for the cost of the telegram and not for the long distance tolls in phoning the message out of West Liberty. As an example, a short telegram sent to any point in Kentucky will cost approximately 20 to 37 cents.

In explaining this new service, W. B. Wells, local manager for the Kentucky State Telephone co., said: "We are happy to offer this superior telegraph service to the citizens of West Liberty thru the facilities of our local telephone company. In reality, every telephone is a Postal Telegraph station, as it gives the subscriber access to any point on the globe. You will appreciate the high type of telegraph service which our employees are now trained to render."
